Patron Saint of the Guidos. Jersey Shore legend. Here for the laughs, the love, and the gravy.

BIOGRAPHY

Uncle Nino, the unforgettable uncle of Vinny Guadagnino, walked onto the set of MTV's Jersey Shore and walked off a phenomenon. For almost two decades, he's been bringing something you simply can't manufacture: pure, joyful, unscripted chaos with a heart of gold. He's got more game than half the cast, no filter whatsoever, and an uncanny ability to turn five minutes on camera into the moment everybody remembers.

Whether he's alongside the Jersey Shore family, working a room, supporting a good cause, or making a stranger laugh, Nino is always exactly the same guy: big personality, bigger heart, and absolutely no idea how to be anything but himself.

Drama, antics, and a wink at every camera. The Staten Island uncle the whole internet adopted — now bringing the heat to your event, your brand, and your feed.

THE DRAMA

Nino doesn't do a quiet entrance. He brings the antics, the gossip, and the reaction shots — every single time.

ALWAYS A LAUGH

He says the thing everyone's thinking, two seconds too soon. Pure, unfiltered, accidental comedy gold.

EYE FOR BEAUTY

A sucker for a good time and a beautiful view. He appreciates the finer things — loudly.
